A news item was published in Eenadu daily news paper on 29.12.2005 about irregularities committed in distribution of exgratia to the victims of collapsed houses due to heavy rains in Amrabad Mandal. The Joint Collector, Mahabubnagar has conducted thorough enquiry by constituting a team of Deputy Tahsildars headed by the Assistant Supply Officer of DSO's Office, Mahabubnagar and monitored him self personally and reported that so many irregularities have been committed by the MRO, Amrabad in identifying the collapsed houses and in payment of exgratia to the victims. The teams formed have visited the following Villages of Amrabad Mandal and conducted door to door enquiry under the direct supervision of Joint Collector, Mahabubnagar. In the following Villages it is found that a huge number of houses were not collapsed and the beneficiaries who were disbursed the amounts are in-eligible. The details are as follows:

Sl. No.	Name of the Village	No.of Beneficiaries found in-eligible
1.	Yelamapally	48
2.	Kalamalonipally	22
3.	Kummronipally	99
4.	Madhavanipalli	22
5.	Amrabad	52
Total		243

Further it is reported that in the villages where the team visited under the supervision of Joint Collector, Mahabubnagar has noticed that no ration cards and no AAY cards were issued to the Chenchu families in the Villages. With regard to public distribution system no kerosene oil was supplied for three months to the cards holders in two phases by the FP Shop dealers. Thus it has been found that these lapses were occurred due to lack of supervision by the then Revenue Divisional Officer, Nagarkurnool, Sri Raheemuddin.

The Dist.Collector, Mahabubnagar has reported that the Revenue Divisional Officers in the district were already instructed during the Divisional level meetings to verify the list of damaged houses in all the Mandals. But the RDO, Nagarkurnool has not carried out the instructions of the District Collector and not supervised identification of AAY beneficiaries and overlooked the public distribution system.

Thus, Sri Raheemuddin, while working as Revenue Divisional Officer, Nagarkurnool had acted in a negligent manner in this case in following the instructions issued by the Higher officials and not having control over the subordinate staff. Due to the above lapses, huge irregularities were occurred in distributing the exgratia to the victims of collapsed houses in the villages mentioned above.

Thus, Sri Raheemuddin, formerly RDO, Nagarkurnool has failed to discharge his legitimate duties and thereby contravened rule 3 of APCS(Conduct)Rules, 1964 and rendered himself liable for disciplinary action.
